

Dash, Encore

He tells me: "Easy girl, stay calm
Even if the rain will fall and fall
I stand here in the same shape and tint
Take it mildly, don't think"

When the storm is coming
You can see the flowers growing
Not pale, not powerless

You are the tree and I'm the water
You love to be and I am scattered

But for me, everything seems to be
The very first sin
Surprised by every beat of my heart
Seduced by each moment with your eyes

When the storm is coming
You can see the flowers growing
Not pale, not powerless
Just blackout and flesh

You are the tree and I'm the water
You love to be and I am scattered
You can't see me, it's cohabitation oh, I can't reach you

Even if I fall, I won't learn
Encore!
