

Dawid Podsiadło, AND I

The park streets your home feel oddly empty
I don't recall your face smiling
You try to act the same but hopelessly
You are my place, the place where I'm stuck in

And I know that you saw me
There in the crowd I stood alone, lone, lone, lone

All of this beautiful memories seem like a giant blur
We were we're not something more we seek impossible to cure
And I'd like to be there on the same train that you are on
But I know your love is for someone else to be owned

And I know that you saw me
There in the crowd I stood alone, lone, lone, lone

And I know that you saw me
There in the crowd I stood alone, lone, lone, lone

Please leave me cause I don't want to be
The reason of your pain
Just leave me cause it's so there we know
There nothing is gonna change

And I know that you saw me
There in the crowd I stood alone, lone, lone, lone
