

Dawid Podsiadło, Forest

I will wait
You will find me
In the land
Of green gardens

To be forgotten is worse than death
If everything's a dream, don't wake me
I've learned so much but there's so much to be learn
You're always trying to betray me
All my lies still rumble in my head
I cannot tell which one is real
So i'll just chose whatever suits me the best
And try to win this stupid argument

You can run now, Forrest
Run now, Forrest
Run now, Forrest, run

I'm not mad
Just waiting for love again
In the land
Of green gardens

It's pretty hard standing on two feet
When the planet keeps on turning
I've probably gathered all the energy
To be the man I wanted to be

Haven't I told you, you're my...
Well I've been trying over and over
Haven't I told you, you're my..
Haven't I told you, you're my "gone girl";

You can run now, Forrest
Run now, Forrest
Run now, Forrest, run

I'll be going now.
I'll come back when it's all over.
