

Dawid Podsiadło, No

I'm the most little innocent liar you have known
Though you're giving me a whole lot of your love
I can feel I can almost feel that I'm there
Touching the gate of your mind telling you I'm bad

And I just want you to know
You are too kind to be fooled like that
That's why I will be honest, love
You deserve to meet a better man

I'm a crook I'm a fraud I'm a shark a deceiver
While you're sweet and you're good all the beauty you deliver
I will only break your heart
Like I did it in the past

That's why I want you to know
You should realize who I really am
I really mean it's real love
I told you so you could finally see

And I'm on the street again the only place
Which welcomes me with open arms and gives me a warm farewell
I think it's time for me to be a decent man
Well hello girl I'd like to know: what's your name?

I don't want you to know
You've just been caught into the sweetest trap
I'm afraid that I can't let you go
Until I feel bad 'bout lying again
