

Deen, Wanted To Make It

I close my eyes when I'm ready to see you
There's nothing new, it's just imagination
Whether you know that I'm still there
Or you try playing a different game
I'll keep you always here in my dreams

I wanted to make it, I wanted to try
But you keep breaking my heart
I've had my tears run down, I wanted to die
I keep on hearing you breathing at night

I wanted to make it, I wanted to try
But you keep breaking my heart
I've had my tears run down, I wanted to die
I keep on hearing you breathing at night

Come into my world, I'll be ready to please you
Are you ready to feel the way that I'll tease you
Would you come down and feel my touch
Your every move gives me a rush
Come, feel the fever of this night

I wanted to make it, I wanted to try
But you keep breaking my heart
I've had my tears run down, I wanted to die
I keep on hearing you breathing at night

I wanted to make it, I wanted to try
But you keep breaking my heart
I've had my tears run down, I wanted to die
I keep on hearing you breathing at night

(You're gonna make it...)

I wanted to make it, I wanted to try
But you keep breaking my heart
I've had my tears run down, I wanted to die
I keep on hearing you breathing at night

I wanted to make it, I wanted to try
But you keep breaking my heart
I have my tears run down, I wanted to die
I keep on hearing you breathing at night

I wanted to make it
