

Deftones, Ceremony

How can't you see this the end?
Let's face the truth
It's obvious
A different morning
The same charade
Tell me what's left?

It's an illusion
It's all an illusion

Prep the Surface
Bpund my limbs
Place the chair beneath the rail
On the outside
Just skin and bones
Show me
what's left?

It's an illusion
It's all an illusion

So i am leaving you tonight
It's not fun here anymore
I'll be joining the parade
Of the ghosts
Who came before
Bwfoe leaving you complete
No surprise
With one kiss
One caress

The world we shared
It was never there

i am leaving you tonight
It's not fun here anymore
I'll be joining the parade
Of the ghosts
Who came before
Bwfoe leaving you complete
No surprise
With one kiss
One caress
