

Demi Lovato, BONES

The second you walked in the room, my legs started to shake
Blood racing, heart pounding like there's a fucking earthquake
One look at me and I lost myself in those blue eyes
And I couldn't close mine no matter how hard that I tried

So many feelings
When you said her name
'Cause I want you so bad
That I need restraints

Lemme jump your bones
Start to lose control
Taking off your clothes
No one has to know
Lemme, lemme, lemme, lemme jump your bones
(Bones)

Selfishly speaking, I want all of you to my self
And one day I'm gonna leave you needing nobody else

So many feelings
When you said my name
'Cause I want you so bad
That I need restraints

Lemme jump your bones
Start to lose control
Taking off your clothes
No one has to know
Lemme, lemme, lemme, lemme jump your bones
(Bones)
Lemme, lemme, lemme, lemme jump your bones
Lemme, lemme, lemme, lemme jump your bones
