Demi Lovato, In Case

Ohhh

Pictures in my pocket Are faded from the washer I can barely just make out your face Food you saved for later In my refrigerator Its been too long since later never came

I know One day eventually Yeah I know One day I'll have to let it all go But I keep it just in case Yeah I keep it just in case

In case you don't find what you're looking for In case you're missing what you had before In case you change your mind, I'll be waiting here In case you just want to come home

Strong enough to leave you But weak enough to need you Cared enough to let you walk away I took that dirty jacket From the trash right where you left it Cuz I couldnt stand to see it go to waste

I know One day eventually Yeah I know One day I'll have to let it all go But I keep it just in case Yeah I keep it just in case

In case you don't find what you're looking for In case you're missing what you had before In case you change your mind, I'll be waiting here In case you just want to come home In case you're looking in that mirror one day And miss my arms, how they wrapped around your waist I say that you can love me again Even if it isn't the case

Oh You don't find what you're looking for Oohh You're missing my loooove You dont find what you're looking for In case you're missing what you had before In case you change your mind, I'll be waiting In case you just want to come home In case Yeahhh Ohh ohh
