

Demi Lovato, Skin of my Teeth

Demi leaves rehab again
When is this shit gonna end?
Sounds like the voice in my head
I can't believe I'm not dead

I'm alive by the skin of my teeth
I survived, but it got harder to breathe
Askin' why doesn't make it easier
Go easier on me
Goddamn it, I just wanna be free
But I can't 'cause it's a fuckin' disease
I'm alive by the skin of my
[Post-Chorus]
(Woo-hoo, ooh)
(Woo-hoo, ooh)

The reaper knocks on my door
'Cause I'm addicted to more
I don't need you to keep score
When I'm the one who's at war

I'm alive by the skin of my teeth
I survived, but it got harder to breathe
Askin' why doesn't make it easier
Go easier on me
Goddamn it, I just wanna be free
But I can't 'cause it's a fuckin' disease
I'm alive by the skin of my

I'm just tryin' to keep my head above water
I'm your son and I'm your daughter
I'm your mother I'm your father
I'm just a product of the problem
I'm just tryin' to keep my head above water
I'm your son and I'm your daughter
I'm your mother I'm your father
I'm alive

I'm alive by the skin of my teeth
Won't you try and have some mercy on me?
Askin' why doesn't make it easier
Go easier on me
Goddamn it, I just wanna be free
But I can't 'cause it's a fuckin' disease
I'm alive by the skin of my

Woo-hoo, ooh (Oh yeah)
Woo-hoo, ooh (I'm alive by)
Woo-hoo, ooh (By the skin of my teeth)
