

Depeche Mode, Soul With Me

I'm heading for the ever after Leaving my problems
And the world's disasters
I'm heading for the open sky

I see the beauty
As the leaves start falling
Follow the light
Towards the voices calling
I'm going where the angels fly

And I'm taking my soul with me
And I'm taking my soul with me

I'm ready for the final pages
Kiss goodbye to all my earthly cages
I'm climbing up the golden stairs

Go sing it from the highest tower
From the morning
Till the midnight hour
I'm going where there are no cares

And I'm taking my soul with me
And I'm taking my soul with me
And I'm taking my soul with me
And I'm taking my soul with me
