

Dethklok, Morte Lumina

(Assassin)

Raaargh!

You.. took my brother from me

(Nathan)

Well, we'd rather burn in hell,
than let you take ours

(Magnus)

My God!

What is thi-i-i-i-is?!

One of them has died

It's all my fault

I can't believe,
what have I've seen.

These are not men
they have the power of gods,
I tried to bring them down.

I am not the hero,
I am the villain,
and I, too, must go down.

(Nathan)

Men and women of the Earth,
I give to you the grand rebirth
of our brother on guitars.

The blazing star,
it burns so bright,
the darkened power,
the dethly light.

Bring it on now,
this is our time,
we're the new regime,
together we'll fight.
