

Devendra Banhart, Sirens

It's getting harder to sing
Impossible things
I ran away from the place
Where I stand

It's getting harder to say
That I got through the day
I memorize every line
But don't understand

Only the sirens
Are here with me tonight

It's getting harder to sit
Without losing it
And I can't seem to stop
These tears in my heart

It's getting harder to see
Clearly
I know it's heaven to forget
But don't, not yet

Only the sirens
Are here with me tonight
Only the violence
Will ever hold me tight

Only the sirens
Are here with me tonight
Only the violence
Will ever hold me tight

Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight

Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
Will ever hold me tight
