

Dexys, She's Got A Wiggle

Listen!

She got a wiggle, she got a wiggle that makes me melt,
The problem is that I don't know if she even likes me,
She's such a woman, she's such a woman, she's all I need,
And I'm the one who loves her so, and now you know, and here I go,
I love her face and her soft brown hair,
And the poses she strikes when she's standing there,
She is woman and I just want her,
And in her mind she says: ("I'm mad about you" /10x)

She's mad about me
She's mad about me.
She got a voice that's soft and moist,
Careses my ears while heightening my senses,
Sexy and warm and tender, I like it,

She got a wiggle, she got a wiggle that makes me melt,
but I'm afraid to let her know, that I'm the one who loves her so,
I love her and in my mind she said: (I'm mad about you /10x)

She's mad about me.
She's mad about me.
She's mad about me.
But it's only a dream

Gotta, gotta
Got to make this real.
(Can't live without you)
Do you know what I mean?
(I'm mad about you)
She's mad about me
But it's only a dream
She got a wiggle, she got a wiggle that makes me melt,
And I'm somehow gonna find a way... to make her love me.
