

DI-RECT, Don't Kill Me Tonight (New Album: Over The

When Im on the loose, it is you whos shining through and through again.
Whenever, the rain comes down, the sun turns grey.
When I needed you, you were always there.
When it comes to you, really nothing can compare.
You feel what I feel, know what I know.
Even through the darkest night youll see what I see.
Theres a reason to believe in you and me.
I would die if you left me, drowning in sorrow, baby dont kill me tonight.
Would you hold on for me girl, love me tomorrow..
When Im feeling blue, it is you whos reaching out for me again.
Whenever, I need your wings to fly away.
You feel what I feel, hear what I hear.
Even through the darkest night youll sleep where I sleep.
Theres a reason to believe in faith cus heaven is in the air!
I would die if you left me, drowning in sorrow, baby dont kill me tonight.
Would hold on to me girl, love me tomorrow, love me tomorrow again..
So if you need me, I will be there, another thousand miles I will be there.
I wont hate you, I will see through, even through the darkest Ill be true.
I would die if you left me, drowning in sorrow, baby dont kill me tonight.
Cus so I wrote you these words down, for you to remember, for you to remember why,
I love you.
