Diana Ross, We Need You

(Deke Richards)

As I glance across the table Your empty chair is out of place Living here just ain't that easy now But there are signs of trying on my face

We need you
You're the strength
You're the sunshine of our days
We need you
And the wisdom of your ways
In our dreams, you are here
When we wake you disappear
Without you
Life is one long lonely day

Both the kids, they still love you You know, they always ask me When is daddy coming home Then we talk, and laugh about the good times Without you, they still feel so alone

We need you
You're the strength
You're the sunshine of our day
We need you
And the wisdom of your way
In our dreams
You are here
When we wake you disappear
Without you, life is one long lonely day

Someone's knocking at the door of my heart Telling me what we need Is a brand new start That ain't true We need you

In our dreams You are here When we wake you disappear Without you life is one long lonely day

We need you
We need you
In our dreams you are here
When we wake you disappear
Without you life is one long lonely day
We need you
We need you

In our dreams You are here When we wake you disappear Without you life is one long lonely day
