

Dido, Hurricanes

I wanna wake up
With your weight by my side
And I wanna think that You look good as you rise
And I wanna turn to you Turn around by your side
And I wanna think
Not to say

let me face the sound and fury let me face hurricanes

and I wanna see you as you walk through the door time will make us some ways less and some ways more and I wanna talk of nothing as the world passes by and u wanna think
not to say

let me not turn away from happiness or pain just not to run away in my heart and in my head let me face hurricanes
