Sail away motherfucker remix

Are you ready for this

Are you ready for this, girl

Check it

[Verse 1: Ninja/Yo-Landi Visser]

I think about you when I masturbate

You can't even believe it but that's OK

On the microphone I fascinate

When I let my 3rd eye exaggerate

Freaky visions, I tell you what I see

Cold concrete scattered with dry leaves

You naked lying on the pavement

People are standing round with laanie shoes

You can hardly move, you look sexy

All of a sudden, the streets are empty

You stand up, open your eyelids

You in a trench coat, it's French, you look stylish

You walk in the silence, not sure what the time is

It's totally twilight, the sky is violet

An abandoned house, look ahead to see

Someone open the door, yes it's me

With the meanest penis you ever seen

You're on your period, with no tampon

You kneel down and get with the vibe (Sail away, motherfuckers)

Your period blood has crystallised (Sail away, motherfuckers)

You offer me the red crystal, it's ill (Sail away, motherfuckers)

Grab hold of the mic tight, tonight's the night (Sail away, motherfuckers)

[Verse 2: Ninja]

Lift up your dress, open up your legs

Your vagina's sewn up, untie the thread

My sublime rhyme inside your head

Your mind is rushing, vagina gushing

Another chick in the corner taking a piss

(It looks nice) The whole vibe's totally kinky

Look around, the new room is fancy

Remove your fur coat, remove your panties

I'm rocking a suit and a blackface mask

I ejaculate into a champagne glass

Your precious flesh is so mysterious

Pierce your nipples with two long needles

Like a crucifix, take you to another level

While I get my freak on, the vibe is mental

Transcendental, we somewhere else now

Still rocking a mask, but I've taken off my suit

You rocking a mask too, shaking your nice boobs

I tell you I like you, you feel my piel

[Chorus: Yo-Landi Visser]

Turn it up, turn it up, turn it up, fucked up love

Turn it up, turn it up, turn it up, fucked up love

Turn it up, turn it up, turn it up, fucked up love

Sail away motherfuckers

Sail away motherfuckers

Sail away motherfuckers

Sail away motherfuckers

[Verse 3: Ninja/Yo-Landi Visser]

You arrive at the cemetery in time for the ceremony

I give you a hot kiss, grab hold of your ass cheeks

How'd you like to get laid on this

Tombstone in the middle of the rain forest

My gaze puts you in a daze, I'm loving your long tongue

Look at your beautiful face, covered in hot come

Spread my wings block out the sun

Lie on my back, scope out your bum

My penis stays hard, you breathing heavily

I penetrate you, the feeling's heavenly

Now bounce girl, you know it's hot (Sail away, motherfuckers)

Bounce, bounce girl, like oh my god! (Sail away, motherfuckers)

Totally freaky deaky funky (Sail away, motherfuckers)

Ninja make you leave your body (Sail away, motherfuckers)
