Dierks Bentley, Good Man Like Me (With The Del

Now that old car, it ain't gonna last You ride around all day, I buy the gas The more I work, the more you spend Tell me honey baby when will this all end

(Chorus:) Her bags are packed, my nerves are racked She's got a one-way ticket, ain't comin' back Oh baby, baby

Where you gonna find a good man like me

Take a look at this house turned upside-down I hung the clothes on the line, they blowed down to the ground I try to eat my own cookin' but its awful bland I'm tellin' you right now things are out of hand

(Chorus 2x) Where you gonna find a good man like me
