

Digitalism, Pogo

Yeah, woah-hoh
The sun is in the air
The sun is in the air
The sun is in the air

Now where has it been
I mean the good old wild days
Became a bit too lame
Just take a look at my place
It's such a mess
But I'll be out of this space as soon as you tell me where the night is
You have to set up
Bring it on Forward!

Yeah, woah-hoh
The sun is in the air
Woah-hoh
The sun is in the
Yeah, woah-hoh
The sun is in the air

It's been quite of a while since I could experience your brightness
Now you've got a brighter smile and I think i'm going to like it
Talking 'bout the better things, you know how to maximize
Everything around you will become supersized
You have to set up
Away from what matters
And get it prepared
Forward!

Yeah, woah-hoh
The sun is in the air
Woah-hoh
The sun is in the
Yeah, woah-hoh
The sun is in the air
Yeah, woah-hoh
The sun is in the air
Woah-hoh
'Cause i've been dreaming we could be the fire for this night
Can't stop

You have to set up
We could get so wasted if you would have come (Bring it on)
We could get so wasted if you would have come
(Forward)
We could get so wasted if you would have come
(Set Up)
We could get so wasted if you would have come
(You have to set up)
We could get so wasted if you would have come (Bring it on)
We could get so wasted if you would have come
(Forward)
We could get so wasted if you would have come
(Set Up)
We could get so wasted if you would have come
(You have to set up)
