

Dionne Warwick, Much too Much

Mhmm, oh I love you baby, too much Uh, uh, uh

Love you much too much
I love you much too much
To ever stop now
Love you much too much
I love you much too much
I wouldn't know how

Too late to stop now, oh, oh

Did you think that I could ever survive without you
In my life
I don't think that I could get through a day there's no way I'd do that

'Cause you're the only one that I wanna hold
You should know that, Baby
How could you ever think
I'd ever let go, oh well
Don't you know?

Love you much too much
I love you much too much
To ever stop now
Love you much too much
I love you much too much
I wouldn't know how

It's too late to stop now, oh, oh

All the days that (all the days that) You've been here by my side have been the brightest I've seen I see no reason (See no reason) that my feelings would change there's no way they'll do that

'Cause you're the only one that I'd ever need
I need you so much, baby
How could you ever think that I'll ever leave I'll never leave!

Love you much too much
I love you much too much
Never leave you, Baby

Love you much too much
I love you much too much
Never leave you, Baby

(Love you much, love you much
I Love you much too much) I love you

(Love you much, love you much
I Love you much too much) I love you

(Love you much, love you much

I Love you much too much) I love you

I love you, I love you, I love you (love you much to much) OOh..

I'd ever let go, oooh
Don't you know?

Love you much too much
I love you much to much
Too much
To ever stop now

till fade
