

Diplo, Color Blind (feat. Lil Xan)

Pink like the inside of your, baby pink behind all of the doors, crazy pink like the tongue that goes down, maybe pink like the paradise found pink when you're blushing inside, baby pink is that truth you can't hide, maybe pink like the folds of your brain, crazy Pink as we all go insane!

I've been so color blind and I've been so color blind trips to the mall

I just stripped in the fall I think I might really be the one after all the one you rule them all I'm the chosen one, the savior but all these triple six make it look like I was up to no good at least that's what my momma said now I'm the one giving momma bread done with the pain
I'm just so heartless

I've been so color blind
and I've been so color blind

Love don't cost a thing so all my girls need diamond ring text that I sent that you never ever read got me feeling like you never ever ever really cared but that's ok, through I hope you feel ok though they used to call me Diego my favorite drink is Fygo I've been so so so

I've been so color blind
and I've been so color blind
I've been so color blind
and I've been so color blind
