

Disturbed, Dehumanized (Live)

If I offered you my soul
Will you carry me away?
I cannot be the only one
To be dehumanized again

Left behind

"Let me see those fists"

Too determined to be forgotten

If I offered you my soul
Will you carry me away?
I cannot be the only one
To be dehumanized again

Feel the determination built into my mind
