

Divine Brown, Deja Vu

(Woo)

(Chorus)

(Baby) baby baby baby

Is this something new? (something new)

Or is this a bad case of dj vu (deja)

Visions that I've seen before showing up in you

This is such a bad case of dj vu (deja baby deja vu)

[Verse 1:]

Ooh I'm dependant

Got a feeling something ain't right

In front of me in plain sight

Ahh I'm not with it

'Cause I feel like I'm in danger

Dealing with a stranger

Sometimes I get lost in and out of love

But at what cost?

And other times win or loose

Nothing grab you by the ...

And tell you where to...

I've seen this before

[Chorus]

[Verse 2:]

It's always easier to judge with hind-sight (hind-sight)

Especially when I think of the way it use to be (oh oh ooh ooh that's all I think about)

Oh love feels so good now like a flower to a honey bee (flower, honey bee, sunshine)

But at one time (one time) I've seen it all come to an end (oh oh oh oh)

And I can't let this happen again (woo)

[Chorus]

[Bridge:]

Dj vu dj vu dj vu dj vu ooh

Why does it go?

When it comes to love all good things come to an end

I don't want to loose you baby

But I don't want to make the same mistakes again again

[Chorus x2]
