

Divines, LUV

When night was falling
The moon was staring right at us
I was silent
He was hunting for my love
That morning bites me
Truth is something I don't like
But the same night
I was hunting for your love

To hunt
On and on
Despair
Of the life
To hunt
On and on
No end
No relief

Sometimes when the dawn comes
I go back to where it starts
Finding out what
Are those things that we deny
Oh how scary
To pretend that we are hard
Under cover
Always hunting for the love

But when the hunting's done
What is worth what you will hunt?

To hunt
On and on
Despair
Of the life
To hunt
On and on
No end
No relief
