

Dizzee Rascal, Bonkers

I wake up everyday its a daydream
Everythin in my life isnt what it seems
I wake up just to go back to sleep
I act real shallow but Im in to deep
And all I care about is sex and violence
And a heavy bass line is my kind of silence
Everybody says I got to get a grip
But I let sanity give me the slip
Some people think Im bonkers
But I just think Im free
Man Im just living my life
There nothing crazy about me
Some people pay for thrills but I get mine for free
Man Im just living my life
There nothing crazy about me
(Bonkers)
