Dizzee Rascal, Bonkers

I wake up everyday its a daydream Everythin in my life isnt what it seems I wake up just to go back to sleep I act real shallow but Im in to deep And all I care about is sex and violence And a heavy bass line is my kind of silence Everybody says I got to get a grip But I let sanity give me the slip Some people think Im bonkers But I just think Im free Man Im just living my life There nothing crazy about me Some people pay for thrills but I get mine for free Man Im just living my life There nothing crazy about me (Bonkers)
