

DJ Kane, You Still Belong To Me

your tears say all I need to know i'm here trying to keep away the loneliness you were u=in love with me i'm the one who gave you everything I gave you it all

you can runaway
but you still belong to me
all your love will stay no matter if I set you free and we can say good-bye a thousand times but I will know that you still belong to me uhhhh you still belong to me
uhhh
you still belong to me

you say yur feelings for me have changed just went away like a fire in the rain I know its all a lie our love will never fade into a memory no it wont dissapear

you still belong to me

when you come back to me when you realize that im the one the only one you need find my arms are open wide

cuz you still belong to me

your heart will set you free
soon your gonna see
baby my love will neva leave
