DJ Shah feat. Inger Hansen, Don't Wake Me Up

I'm talking in my sleep Every full moon light I fight against my sin And I just don't know why I wonder, what it is That makes me feel alright Waiting for the one Is going make my life Don't wake me up, don't let me go 'Cause all I need, and all I see is you Don't wake me up, don't let me go 'Cause all i ever dream about is you I try to stand back 'Cause in my dreams at night I meet a pretty girl is going make my life I'm trying to forget The fact that its a dream Saying to myself That even dreams are real That even dreams are real (x2) Don't wake me up, don't let me go 'Cause all I need, and all I see is you Don't wake me up, don't let me go 'Cause all i ever dream about is you Don't wake me up, don't let me go 'Cause all i need & amp; all i see is you All I need, and all I see is you (x2) And all I ever dream about is you
