

DJ Tiesto, Solarstone And Jes - Like A Waterfall

I surface from the haze i see the real reasons why i'm so over my head it seems unclear mistakes it's hold our whole world is gonna break it's crumbling so easily but you are the only one i want you to know who will get under my skin so if i dare to try, i dare .. i'll prove to you it's not a waste and this is not our last goodbye those other thrills cause i've got a better place to go been out of my head, you'll see i wanna take a taste in this old violent light's chambers they're burning me like gasoline but you are the only one i need you to know you know i'm always there so if i dare to try, i dare to try i'll prove to you it's not a waste

and this is not our last goodbye

i see a rainbow bleeding out of the sun and i feel my adrenaline before it's already begun and i tried to tell you but you've not listened but we know...it all pours out of me like a waterfall

like a waterfall
it all pours out of me ...
