

Do, Selfish

Drink you coffee
Read your paper
And look into the mirror
As you watch yourself get dressed
Here comes summer
There goes spring
Life is easy
When you don't feel a thing

And not another single soul
Has even crossed your mind
As far as other people go
You haven't got the time

Chorus:

'Cause you're selfish, vain and so damn cruel
But everything that comes around goes around too
'Cause you're selfish, vain and so damn cruel
And everyone that goes around comes around too

You're a stranger, I'm a girl
I never stood a chance of knowing who you were
From a distance it's all so clear
May have spent some time with you
But you were never here

And though it must get lonely
When you live without a friend
'Cause every single soul you leave
You're gonna meet again

Chorus: (repeat)

'Cause you're selfish, vain and so damn cruel
But everything that comes around goes around too
'Cause you're selfish, vain and so damn cruel
And everyone that goes around comes around too
