

Dolly Parton, 80 FOR BRADY | Gonna Be You | E

I'm sticking with you
Cause I know there's no one else
Who knows me better
Holds me together

And everyone else will turn their back on me
But I know that you won't
When I'm feeling like I'm sinking, sinking, sinking You're the lifeline that I'm needing, needing, needing

And you're always there
So I always know
It's gonna be you
Who comes to the rescue anytime that I'm drownin
In to the cold deep water
Yeah you're gonna dive in

You pull me through
Gonna be you
Gonna be you
I'll be there for you
Cause you're always there for me
Always got my back

I always know that
And everybody else could give up on me
But still, but still you don't You're my lifeboat when I'm sinking, sinking, sinking

You're the lifeline when I need it, need it, need it
Yeah you're always there
So I always know
It's gonna be you
Who comes to the rescue anytime that I'm drowning
In to the cold deep water yeah you're gonna dive in

You pull me through
Gonna be you, gonna be you
When I'm spread out
When I'm crashin down
You're the one
That pulls me back up again
If everybody turns their back on me

You won't
So I always know it's gonna be you
Who comes to the rescue anytime that I'm drowning
In to the cold deep water yeah you're gonna dive in

You pull me through
Gonna be you
Gonna be you
Gonna be you
Gonna be you
