Dolly Parton, As Long As I Love

(Dolly Parton)

Hurt is no stranger to me
And oh how well I know misery
You've always hurt me
But I always forgive
And I'll hurt for as long as I love you
And I'll love you for as long as I live
Oh it's my fault for loving you so deeply
I'd give you my love completely
I'd give you love but hurt is all you give
And I hurt for as long as I love you
And I'll love you for as long as I live

For as long as I love you, there'll be pain Though tears come and go My love remains the same I'll always forgive you You know that I will And I hurt for as long as I love you And I'll love you for as long as I live

Yes I've hurt for as long as I loved you And I'll love you for as long as I live
