

Donna Summer, Wandererds

You made it to the bright lights you only come alive at night you're one of the sight You hang out with those big names a rising star out on the gain that's the price of your fame (Fame is only a dream I and away)
Who do you think you're fooling (you're fooling)
who do you think you are
who do you think you're fooling you're a star, you're a star
Who do you think you're fooling
(you're fooling)
who do you think you are
who do you think you're fooling you're a star, such a star you're a star
You're halfway up the ladder on are you really halfway down you never know in this town but you swear you're gonna make it and you don't care how you fake your life you're gonna make it all right (Fame is only a dream world away)
Who do you think you're fooling
(you're fooling)
who do you think you are
who do you think you're fooling
you're a star, such a star
Who do you think you're fooling
(you're fooling)
who do you think you are
who do you think you're fooling
you're a star, such a star
you're a star
fame is only a dream world away
