

Doris Day, It All Depends On You

I can be happy, I can be sad
I can be good, or I can be bad
It all depends on you

I can be lonely out in a crowd
I can be humble, or I can be proud
It all depends on you

I can save money or spend it
Go right on livin' or end it
You're to blame, honey
For what I do

I can be beggar, I can be king
I can be almost any old thing
It all depends on you
