Doro, Scarred

My eyes just drink you in And I always feel so much I'm contemplating sin And you know I'm losing touch Everything is moving fast I know that this must end Like a drug that doesn't last Let the hangover begin

There's pain that you left here Though I don't know where you are I always feel you there Where I'm aching and I'm scarred

Can you see it in my eyes
Can you taste it in my tears
And I'm drowning every night
It's been going on for years
I keep calling out you name
I keep reaching out for you
In the sweetness and the pain
The scar becomes the truth

There's a clock right by my bed It keeps blinking out the time In a bloody shade of red Just like what's on my mind And the time passes slow And this feeling never ends And the darkness never goes And the new day won't begin There's a pain that you left here Though I don't know where you are I always feel you there Where I aching and I'm scarred

Can you see it in my eyes
Can you taste it in my tears
And I'm drowning every night
It's been going on for years
I keep calling out you name
I keep reaching out for you
In the sweetness and the pain
The scar becomes the truth
