

Down Below, Heal

You're back from your fight
You're so sad, Yes I can see... oh oh...
But you mustn't lose your light
You're so tired, Yes I can feel

Please open the door, Come in and rest
Lay down all the stories you've saved for me
Please open the door, come in and rest
Here you will find your silence in me

'cause here you can
sleep in my arms
Here you can
Dream in my mind
And if you
Sleep I will heal you
Yes, I can heal... Free your heart from the steel

One look into your eyes is enough
So sorry for what you saw out there
I'm so sorry
Your heart looks like a battlefield
So sorry for what you felt out there...
I'm so sorry

Please open the door, Come in and rest
Lay down all the stories you've saved for me
Please open the door, come in and rest
Here you will find your silence in me

Yes, I can heal... Free your heart from the steel

And when you wake up you're not alone
So don't be scared, You will feel my mind inside
When you wake up you're not alone
So don't be scared, You will feel my mind inside
Sleep in my arms
'cause here you can
Dream in my mind

'Cause here you can

Yes, I can heal... free your heart from the steel
Yes, I can heal... free your heart from the steel
Yes, I can heal... free your heart from the steel
