

Dragonhammer, Fighting the Beast

When you look at the moon and the red light is shining
The prophecy is coming near
The end of it all will break the sky
The fear of the scared lies

You are in my hands
You don't understand
You are puppets surrounding me
You are in my hands, you don't understand
The battle is here

They countdown of war is starting now
You need to be ready for hunting

Chorus:
Follow me, glory and victory
You are living by the code of my soldiers
You're living fighting the beast
You can see your flag riding the wind
You are living by the code of my soldiers
You're living fighting the beast

When you look at the moon and the red light is shining
The prophecy is coming near
The fire of guns shine in the night
The darkness is falling now
