

Dragonland, The Last Word

Afraid to see your eyes
Although I feel my tears have dried
The stars are on my side
And I know the reasons why

So you'll leave me now
But before you say goodbye

Although you're far away
I know that you will stay
With me forever.
No matter that you'll go
I will always miss you so,
Miss you so
Oh, the last word.

Say you won't forget
How destiny brought us together
And I hope that you will find
All your dreams realized

So you'll leave me now
But before you say goodbye

Although you're far away
I know that you will stay
With me forever.
No matter that you'll go
I will always miss you so
Miss you so, whoa.

Although you're far away
I know that you will stay
with me forever
No matter that you'll go
I will always miss you so
Miss you so
Whoa

Although you're far away,
I know that you will stay
with me forever
No matter that you'll go
I will always miss you so
Miss you so, whoa.

Ohh.
