

Drake, Days In The East

Why you keep askin' me about her?
She's not here right now, she's not here right now
Why am I the one you wanna get into it with right now
I've got a lot to say, and that's the last thing a nigga wanna hear right now
Spendin' all my days on the Eastside of
Forgettin' who I was on the other side of
Young nigga switchin' up the program right now
Tryna put the power in my own hands right now
I'm about to ride through the old hood right now
Got too much pride for my own good right now
Waitin' on you to give in and hit me up
So I could fall through like old times and hit it up

I'm terrible at inviting myself, call me over
Those nights when you need someone else call me over
You can be the one to take control call me over
When I get there, you already know, call me

Why you keep askin' me about her?
Couple other things I'd rather wanna do than talk 'bout that right now
Told you about giving him chances and chances and chances
He's not holding you down, he's holding you back right now
Spendin' all my days on the Eastside of
Forgettin' who I was on the other side of
Young nigga switchin' up the program right now
Tryna put the power in my own hands right now
Love it when your ass speak the truth to me
Tryna wake up and have you with me
Waitin' on you to give in and hit me up
So I could fall through like old times and hit it up

I'm terrible at inviting myself, call me over
Those nights when you need someone else call me over
You can be the one to take control call me over
When I get there, you already know, call me

(I threw my hands in the air said show me something)
Remember one night I went to Erykah Badu house, she made tea for me
We talked about love and what life could really be for me
She said, "when that shit is real, you just know"
And I was thinking bout you, you already know
Yeah, the other night Chubbs showed up at my house
He had weed for me, that's my nigga till we gon'
Keeps his ear to the streets for me
Said the city stress him out on the low
I said, "I feel you, nigga, I already know"
Yeah, already
Girl's talkin' bout you, gotta leave already
Damn, my lil' nephew turned four already
Gave you a little help, you need more already Damn, you need more already?
Before you said your mine, I was yours already 22, had the Bentley 4 door already
Even as a boy I was the boy already
So you know that mean the pussy galore already Mention other girls, you get insecure already
That was in the past, I've matured already Fuck them hoes, you got the award already
You go to Chanel and get rewards already Know I do this shit for 3rd Ward already Know I do this shit for H-Town already Already, already
Back up in this thing, it's a go
Had a couple niggas out of pocket, now they know

Ain't the first time cause I've lost you before
Had to get it back, had to get it back
Had to pull it back because I know I'm on the road
Had to take you back because I know you're down the road
If you can get it from me, you can have it, now you know
All your friends asking where you staying with the boy
FaceTime said you got plans for the boy
Studying your body, that's exams for the boy
Take a flight here, pop a xan for the boy
Waking up in Amsterdam with the boy
Long flight home, another xan for your boy
You would probably fly out to Japan for the boy
You would probably kill another man for the boy
You would probably...
You would probably lie 'bout it on the stand for your boy
Put the Bible to your right hand for the boy
That's why you I ain't never gotta worry 'bout the boy
You know you got...
You know you got that really good insurance on the boy
You just gotta pack a bag and hurry to the boy
