

Dua Lipa, French Exit

Dua Lipa prezentuje piosenkę "French Exit" z płyty "Radical Optimism" (premiera 3 maja 2024 r.).

I don't wanna stay 'til the lights come on
I just can't relate to the words of this love song
What's it gonna take to right all the wrongs?
'Cause right now I can't give you what you want

Everybody's still dancing
Everybody's holding hands and romancing
Someone's gotta be the last one standing
And I hate that I'm leaving you stranded
But I gotta hit the road
But I gotta hit the road

It's not a broken heart if I don't break it
Goodbye doesn't hurt if I don't say it
And I really hope you'll understand it
Only way to go is a French exit
French exit
Filer à l'anglaise
French exit

Maybe time away will make it make sense
I'm better at a clean break than leaving doors open
I know you're gonna say I shoulda stayed 'til the end
But right now I can't give you what you want

Everybody's still dancing
Everybody's holding hands and romancing
Someone's gotta be the last one standing
And I hate that I'm leaving you stranded
But I gotta hit the road
Yeah, I gotta hit the road

It's not a broken heart if I don't break it
Goodbye doesn't hurt if I don't say it
And I really hope you'll understand it
Only way to go is a French exit

And you know, you know, you know, you know I'm right
And it's better to do this than say goodbye
And the only, only, only fix is time
And a lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely night

It's not a broken heart if I don't break it
Goodbye doesn't hurt if I don't say it
And I really hope you'll understand it
Only way to go is a French exit
French exit
Filer à l'anglaise
French exit
C'est la seule solution
French exit
