

Dubstar, When You Say Goodbye

It's not you it's not me
It's a feeling now & then
To your face I find it hard to say
A word about your ways that's ok
Your smile the bravest face of all
Look your eyes they try to pin me down
Save me from myself
I won't see your smile the bravest face of all
I don't care for it at all
Warmth and smiles as we follow this old game and we're looking through windows the colour of wine and second by second they close leaving me behind
