

Dudley Saunders, Take Me Back Home Again

offer a beer to me and make it clear to me we're to be the only ones in this room all night
spoon your back into me and I'll begin to believe you're gonna stay with me tonight for night and night and night and nights

take me back home again
take me back home
'cause you're the only rider
on the highway in my bones
take me alone
'cause I can't see without your light shining on my lonely lonely lonely
road tonight
feels like the sun is in my eyes

walk me down empty streets talking talk that repeats the sweet
feelings that you feel I'll eat 'em down down
like the sweetest meal
fingers caught up in mine and I will lie so fine
all the lies have turned out real real as road against your wheels

nothing's on your radio but larry king and oldies shows I'm on another frequency you got to dial your dial, dear down to me
no you don't know why you left but now that rock of ages clefts for you and me
you're gonna feel bereft until you tune on into me

and on a starry night
I think we are rewriting all the tales that turned out sad
'cause that's one tale
I done already had
here in the candle glow good'll come and'll go
but you know
I'll never treat you bad

'cept on days
you say you want it bad
