Duff McKagan, Lonely Tonite

Do you remember walkin' hand in hand Did you understand, well, I did We used to listened to that song "Are you lonely tonight?" I think the king sang it I'm lonely tonite Yeah lonely tonight That's right I used to read you bedtime stories I'm so lonely tonite I'm so lonely, so lonely tonite Remember you used to protect me From my fright Now I stand here with a bottle in My hand Who cares? What's different? Tonite Tonite
