Duff McKagan, Trouble

rouble always follows me But trouble ain't a bad place to be I'll get my shit by it, if I can But I stand on my own, and I'm my own man The only age I know is the dark age All the people I know put me in a The only age I know is the dark age The only light I know is in this dark I'm the portrait of your patronization Have you ever looked at my face? They try to make a mess out of me They're heading for a social catastrophe
They try to make a mess out of me Alienation, false masturbation, incrimination My soul salvation, discrimination, isolation No consolation here Always follow me Always follow me

Always follow me
