

Duran Duran, Do You Believe In Shame

Do you believe in love?
Do you believe in shame?
And if love can conquer all then why do we only feel the pain?
I heard you speak my name heard you singing The Stones maybe heard you laughing in a line of static on my telephone
So why your eyelids are closed, inside a case of rust
And did you have to change all your poets fire into frozen dust
I've tried to justify it to learn from your mistake
But where's the stupid lie that has to make it's point with such a pointless waste Come out
Do you believe in shame?
Do you believe in love?
And if they taste the same would you love again or abandon both?
I don't think I ever can believe my friend has gone Keep saying it's alright I'm going to bring you back but I know I'm wrong There's nothing I can say there's nothing left to do It's just that lately I feel so damn lonely when I think of you And it may seem selfish now but I'll hold on to the memory Until all this fear is washed away
Do you believe in love?
Do you believe in life?
'Cos I believe a little part of you inside of me will never die...
