

Duran Duran, Out Out Of My Mind

Light a candle
Lay flowers at the door
For those who're left behind
And the ones who've gone before
Here it comes now
Sure as silence follows rain
The taste of you upon my lips
Your fingers in my brain
Ever gentle, as it kills me where I lay
Who am I to resist?
Who are you to fail?

CHORUS:

Got to get you out of my mind
But I can't escape from the feeling
As I try to leave the memory behind
Without you, what's left to believe in?
Could be so sorry
For the way it had to go
But now I feel your presence
In a way I could not know
And I wonder
Do you ever feel the same?
In whispering darkness
Do you ever hear my name?

CHORUS

(Here in the back of your mind)
(Here in the back of your mind)
And how could you dare
To become so real? (Become so real)
When you're just a ghost in me
And I've

CHORUS

Here in the back of your mind
Deep in the back of your mind
Here in the back of your mind
Deep in the back of your mind
Deep in the back of your mind
