

Dynasty, Not In Vain

I see the World lost in their doubts
(People) trying to forget the pain in their souls
They want to dry the tears on their faces
But they don't know who is the way

Tell me now, why can't you see?
I wonder why you are still blind

One day someone paid the price for us
To live a life so far away from hate
You may feel His love and peace
A love that you can't understand

Died on a cross for you and me
Gave us His life for our sins
Died on a cross
Why can't you see?
Gave us His life for our sins
