

DYNAZTY, Presence of Mind

This is were we crash and burn
This is were we start to learn
Ground zero this fear of your presence of mind
Where the mind plans to perfect
We'll emerge and we reset
Ground zero this fear of your presence of mind

How could I ever reconcile
Feel it was all worthwhile
Let's cut through
Dead set to uncover
There's no point in denying it
Let's all be real about this
As we sin we begin to suffer

This is were we crash and burn
This is were we start to learn
Ground zero this fear of your presence of mind
Where the mind plans to perfect
We reverse and we reset
Ground zero this fear of your presence of mind

On the edge of the world we stand
You and me in command
Let's address this recess, and cut through
To the next phase of our design
Where we will re-define
Overcome or succumb it's our choice

This is were we crash and burn
This is were we start to learn
Ground zero this fear of your presence of mind
Where the mind plans to perfect
We reverse and we reset
Ground zero this fear of your presence of mind

As we carelessly propel forward we leave
Behind a trail of destruction in our wake
Subconsciously this fact accelerates our trajectory forward
In order to escape the undesirable realization of responsibility Inevitability we crash in to a wall of Realization with the smallest hurdle to overcome
Cause and effect
Act and consequence
As we sin we begin to suffer
The higher we fly the further we must fall
As we crash and burn we have the choice to rise and to learn
In the end all is within the grasp of our mind
Overcome or succumb rise or fall further

This is were we crash and burn
This is were we start to learn
Ground zero this fear of your presence of mind
Where the mind plans to perfect
We reverse and we reset
Ground zero this fear of your presence of-

This is were we, we crash and burn
This is were we, we start to learn
Ground zero this fear of your presence of mind
This is were we crash and burn
This is were we start to learn
Ground zero this fear of your presence of mind
Where the mind plans to perfect

We reverse and we reset
Ground zero this fear of your presence of mind

Presence of mind

Oh yeah
