So you want to live forever Give your stirring speeches on TV We can laugh about it later, can't we

All your heroes went down fighting So you get in every fight you can and it makes you feel much closer to the man

I get my killing in the free world ain't it fun Its good for everyone For better television Does anybody want it? Come on Will you pick up your daddy's gun

Brother can you smell the envy Everybody wants to be like you And the ones who don't well fuck 'em and you do

I get my killing in the free world ain't it fun Its good for everyone For better television Does anybody want it? come on Will you pick up your daddy's gun

Oh inshallah
Does anybody wanna get off
Oh ooh inshallah
And the cars will run forever
Its good for everyone
For better television
Does anybody want it come on
Will you pick up your daddy's gun
