Echo And The Bunnymen, Too Young To Kneel

Who's gonna hold you When you're too scared to feel Who's gonna cure you When the pain won't heal Who's gonna be there When the world goes wrong Who's gonna tell you You're the only one

In my blood In my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch Turn me cold Make my glitter shine

Who's gonna reach you When you can't be caught Who's gonna teach you What you can't be taught Who's gonna beat you When you won't be fought Who's gonna buy you When you can't be bought

In my blood In my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch Turn me cold Make my glitter shine

Who's gonna pray for you When you're too young to kneel Who's gonna fake it When it gets too real One more question answered In the falling star I heard they found Death on Mars

In my blood In my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch Turn me cold Make my glitter shine

In my blood In my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch Turn me cold Make my glitter shine
